All 60 Relocatables To Have Two Doors?

'Huck Finn Day' Is A Success!

The success and acceptability of the Huck Finn Day was very evident throughout Sierra Madre by the smiles on the children's faces as they carried away their fair share of trout a week ago Saturday, which incidentally was three. Shown is Bruce Burkey, age 6 years, who was the first boy to capture a fish, which was done at 9:03 a.m. Mayor Ralph R. Rule and daughter Nancy, together with Councilman Simons, picked out a spot to try their luck. Five hundred trout were planted in the spreading basin for the affair; it is estimated that there may be as many as

Opponents Of Bond & Tax Over-ride Offer Services

The following victory statement was issued Wednesday, April 23, by George C. Jordan, executive director of Taxaction, the organization which led the fight against Pasadena's school bonds and over-ride.

The taxpayers have won their greatest battle against the massed forces and wealth of Pasadena's school custodians and their newspaper.

By so doing, they have improved the atmosphere for a fresh approach to the real problems faced by Pasadena schools.

Unfortunately, they did not quite finish the job. Two candidates who stood for the policies rejected by the voters were elected and

Two School Board Members Astounded At Relocatables

After Inspection They Term Old Building Safer Than The New Ones

The fathers and mothers of Sierra Madre SCREAMED, and their voices were heard in Pasadena, and more particularly by members of who Thursday made a special trip to Sierra Madre to inspect the conditions of the "Relocatables."

Steve Salisian, and John Welch were amazed at the form of construction that the relocatables had taken, they had no idea they would be as they now are. John Welch said, "Why, Sierra Madre condemned school building is far more safe than the relocatables, should we have a major earthquake." Steve Salisian was astounded and said, "I am truly happy that Sierra Madreans called this to my attention before I left the School Board; I intend to do something about it and soon."

Both men, meeting with the Editor of the Sierra Madre News said, "We will immediately demand that

After an election and the results are tabulated it is natural for most people to want to know just how, why and if, their particular precinct results had upon the outcome. The Bond issue lost by a total of 11,088 votes and the Tax Override lost by a total of 2,301 votes.

Has Car Wash

Sierra Madrean's Family Helps Him In Business

Not actually setting out to go into the car wash business Sierra Madrean, Don McCormac has been making a huge success of a business, as he explains, he "stumbled into" ten years ago.

McCormac's Car Wash located at 2400 East Colorado Boulevard and using all the latest and modern equipment, has a completely automatic car wash system with a hookless conveyor — none of that large hook and chain to the bumpers stuff.

When you drive your car in to be washed, you drive directly to the vacuums for cleaning and then pick your car up at the gas pumps. The procedure is reversed with most other car washes.

Firefighters Offer Thanks

Sierra Madre Firefighters wish to give a "tip of the hat" to two young men who, by their quick action, may have saved a home on Vista from serious fire damage.

The fire was Saturday, April 12 at 9:39 p.m., when residents of the home had hung a towel over a heater which became ignited.

The quick thinking of Howard Weise, 3865 Greenhill, Pasadena, and Neil Walter of 2031 Canyon, Arcadia, put out the fire with a bucket, taking water from the swimming pool.

It is not that Firefighters condone action of outsiders, but prior to their arrival, anything that can be done is certainly appreciated.

Chief Charles Brown extends compliments and thanks of the department to these two young men.

Red Cross Makes Call

Comic books wanted! That's the word from two overseas military hospitals that receive entertainment supplies for their patients from the Pasadena Chapter, American National Red Cross.

The supplies are provided for the patients through Red Cross' "Operation Helpmate" program.

Mrs. Richard Ridgway, chairman of the Helpmate project for Pasadena Red Cross, said requests for large stocks of commercial comic books have come in from the 106th Army General Hospital near Yokohama, Japan, and from the Naval Hospital in Subic Bay in the Philippines.

There has been an additional request from the 106th Army hospital for comic books written in Spanish, Mrs. Ridgway said.

There are some 1,000 patients in the 106th hospital and more than 300 patients in the Subic Bay facility.

The comic books prove to be one of the most popular forms of entertainment for the men because they provide light reading that will not tire patients who are

Fire Calls For the Week

If anyone should doubt that fires come in series, then the following is the fourth such series during the month of April. It is not superstition that fires run in groups of threes, it just happens that way. So far this year we have had 7 groups of 3 fires, the three being in a range of no more than three days.

Saturday, April 26, your firefighters answered the first alarm in a series of three at 11:02 a.m. to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ross, 620 Chaparral Road.

Engine 424 made the run in 3 minutes 14 seconds to find that the garage building was afire due to the explosion of an unvented pool heater. The side of the garage was burned as well as flooring to the patio area. The fire was extinguished by the booster line using about 75 gallons of water.

Seventeen regular firefighters and two reserves answered the alarm as did Truck 421 and car 426, with Engine 423 on standby at Carter and Chaparral. Damage was estimated by Chief Charles Brown at $250.

The second of the series came at 11:16 a.m. while 424 was still in service. This call was to Heasley Field where a car in the parking Arguments, candidates and statements to go into the Sample Ballot must be in the hands of the Registrar of Voters SIX WEEKS BEFORE the deadline of 29 days prior to the election. They are then sent to the printer and are to be returned so the office can stuff, address and mail out the sample ballots and instructions for Absentee Ballots.

Now the Officer of Registrar of Voters, did not blame the printers for being late with the materials . . . They only said that they GUESSED they would have to send them to the printers earlier this was the statement of the Head Man Mr. Lee.

Mr. Lee admitted to this newspaper that the sample ballots and instructions for absentee ballots were mailed from Los Angeles on Wednesday, April 9. They could have, and should have been mailed on March 24 to allow the 29 days before election . . . but the law says anytime before 5 DAYS BEFORE THE ELECTION.

Opponents of Bonds & Tax Over-ride Offer

should have a top flight high school at Muir, complete with vocational training facilities. Blair high should be completed, Promises made in 1967 to Sierra Madre should be kept. The needs of our elementary and junior high schools should have non-political attention.

In all of this, our school officials should accept the fact once and for all that the people who pay their salaries do not want cross-town busing for purposes of "ethnic balance." Artificial juggling of students for "racial integration" is not a substitute for decency in dealing with our children.

Meanwhile, we shall probably have to confront the school cult again at Sacramento and maybe in Washington. The school lobby has clearly shown its hand already in Sacramento. Now on the books is the vicious Unruh bill. This law removes the tax rate ceiling on school boards as of July, 1971. From then on, the sky will be the tax ceiling unless it is repealed. The state Senate has voted to repeal it but the Assembly is dragging its feet.

Other legislative objectives of the school cult will probably be one or more of the following:

1. Lowering of the voter percentage required to pass bond issues;
2. Imposition of a property tax law administered by the state;
3. Much greater state aid to schools out of sales or income or other taxes. This is a mixed blessing. While it lessens the discrimination against home owners, it further weakens local controls and removes tax-levying further from the voters.

We may also expect unnecessary and punishing cuts to be made by school officials unless they are checked by an aroused and organized electorate.

The citizens who defeated the bond and over-ride should now be equally ready to continue the fight at Sacramento. But they should also be ready to join with their neighbors in working constructively for genuinely good education for all of our children, regardless of race or color.

Finally, we wish to thank all those individuals who put time or money or both into this effort.

In that connection, we can report that with all campaign bills paid Taxation's total campaign expenditures were $906.72. We believe that the KIDS organization should make a corresponding report to the public.

Everybody is waiting for somebody to do something about smog.

Meet somebody.

This is our community. We live here. We've served Southern California for more than 100 years. And we've lived with the smog problem, just as you have.

The Southern California area is recognized for having some of the best control programs for air pollution in the country. But we still have smog.

We wanted to help solve the problem. Not just talk about it.

And now we think we have a way to help. At the Gas Company, we've found that using natural gas as a fuel in motor vehicles sharply reduces the pollutants that cause smog.

We've already converted a number of our own service vehicles to use natural gas for fuel. And we're working to perfect the system for our own fleet, and so that others can use it, too.

There are many organizations like ours, with fleets of vehicles, operating from central servicing and fueling locations, spending many hours every day on the streets and freeways in Southern California. Conversion to natural gas is simple, and relatively inexpensive. Operation is more economical.

We don't claim that use of natural gas in fleets of buses, trucks, and cars is going to clean up the smog problem overnight. But it will help. And that's what we wanted to do.

May Festival To Be Held At Ascension

Sierra Madre's own gifted wonder, Alex, the Psychic Dog, will give three performances during the afternoon. Alex, owned by Mama Pete, is renowned for his powers of extrasensory perception. His stage career has included several television appearances. His performances will delight the children as he "answers" their questions.

Snip and Snap, two look-alike Shetland ponies, will give the children rides around the school grounds.

Food at the Festival will include such gastronomic delights as pink lemonade, hot dogs, hamburgers, donut holes, popcorn, sno cones, and candy apples. A spaghetti dinner at 4:30 will be a highlight of the day.

A boutique featuring handcrafts made by Ascension School parents will be one of the major attractions for adults.

During the afternoon, folk dances will be performed by the children of Ascension School under the direction of Mrs. Irene Rosta. Classrooms will be open as the students exhibit science, art, and social studies projects.

Puppets made by members of the fifth grade class will perform several different times during the day. These children have written, staged and produced their own play, and have made the puppets and costumes without any adult assistance.

A Huffy bike, to be given away at the May Festival, has many Sierra Madre youngsters waiting anxiously for May 3. The winner of this bike will have his (or her) choice of a lightweight, English-style bike or a sting-ray type bike. The give away for the bike will be at 4 p.m. Free entry blanks may be obtained from many Sierra Madre merchants displaying May Festival posters. Additional entry blanks will be available at Ascension School at the May Festival.

These entry blanks must be deposited at the Festival, May 3. The only requirement is that the person whose name is drawn must be present at the time of the selection, at 4 p.m., in order to win. Otherwise, the awarding will continue until the name of a winner who is present is selected. Ascension School is located at 25 E. Laurel, at the corner of Laurel and Baldwin.

Opening festivities at the May Festival will begin at 11 a.m. Games and activities, folk dances and fun will occupy the day. The spaghetti dinner starts at 4:30, followed by the white elephant auction. So fill out an entry blank for the free bike and come to the May Festival, May 3, at Ascension School.

SALLY — Let's take Sunday morning off and attend the O.E.S. Annual Breakfast at the Masonic Hall in Sierra Madre — 33 East Sierra Madre Blvd. It will be such a joy to let the others do the cooking — HAZEL

NORMAN — When the Fire Chief asked for a path to be clear to permit passage of emergency equipment on Mt. Wilson Road and the City Engineer and Administrator came up with a figure of $20,000 and said that was a "horseback guess", I think you were trying to put somebody on. This was no "horseback guess" it seems more like "Jackass judgment." — GAMB

GLORIA — And up jumped the man with the idea. Ole Jack is going to give us a smooth one again in May, I can smell a double special like I can smell home made bread. Suits cleaned and pressed for only 99c along with men's shirts, on hangers or in boxes at the low rate of 4 for 99c would be a big deal, but Vogue Cleaners and Laundry can and will do better; do not tarry too long with the Suit special, get 'em in now, something bigger could be comin' — SUSAN

KEEP carpet cleaning problems small — use Blue Lustre, wall to wall. Rent electric shampooer, $1 at — ARNOLD'S Hardware & Gift Store, 297 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.; 355-3365 and always ask for — BOB

JIM — Let's pull a fast one on the Girls Sunday, May 4 and take them to the Masonic Lodge Building in Sierra Madre for Breakfast. It's the annual O.E.S. affair, with lots of good food, with no dishes to worry about. Is it a deal? — EARLE

SPANGLER — This damn paper cannot spell FORLORN, so no buck and a quarter this week. Plans are as tight as the bark on a tree. See you in Church first. — FORLORN

Letters To the Editor

Dear Editor:

There are many things I wonder about . . . why are elementary school children involved with integration problems, such as cross-town busing? According to a report in a national magazine some school boards have resorted to unusual busing plans in order to save the federal grants. Nobody's happy. Not even the Negro parents.

Why does the government think the surtax will curb inflation? Don't taxes usually increase the cost of living? The grocer, processor, retailer . . . the unions . . . all must have more money, higher wages. It is doubtful if it will stop people from buying what they want. Wouldn't it be most honest if the Powers That Be would say, "Look here, guys and gals, we need more dough, so cough up?"

If we are so affluent why the continuing farm subsidies? Supposed to be for the depression duration. When we were down South we talked with many subsidy recipients. They wouldn't be growing cotton anyway. Some of them did not even have to grow the phoney fraction of an acre.

Why do some of the unions make such preposterous demands? Don't they know "that every institution has within itself the seed of self-destruction?"

In the crusade against smoking, why is only the health hazard of the smoker stressed? Don't the majority, the non-smokers, have any rights? Should we not get some relief from the burden we must bear because of this bad habit of others? Loss of life and property by smoker-caused fires . . . Higher insurance rates . . . The polluted air. Nowhere is this unfairness more evident than in doctors' reception rooms, hospitals and on buses, trains and planes. It is cruel to put a patient allergic to tobacco smoke in the same room with a smoker and to make the crime worse by permitting the smoking patient's visitors to smoke.

Perhaps it is time we, the majority, the non-smokers, should protest. In the crusade against smoking why don't doctors put up "No Smoking" signs in their reception rooms.

Girls will be featured in glowing colors. The window, approximately 6 by 8 feet, will dominate one end of the high-ceilinged room.

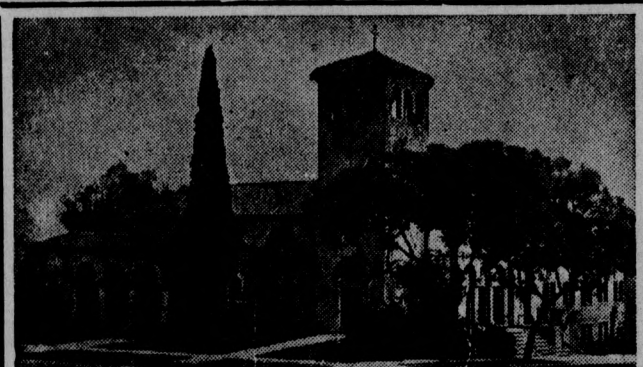

Mrs. Burt's service as a volunteer for Camp Fire Girls and especially for her work with the Northwest Project. This project, begun in 1963 to enable girls to participate in Camp Fire who would not otherwise have the opportunity to belong to a youth group, had become a model for inner city involvement throughout the United States.

Contributions made to the San Gabriel Valley of Camp Fire Girls in memory of Mrs. Burt, after her death in 1967, were set aside for the memorial window. However, further donations are needed to cover the entire cost, according to Florence Martin, executive director. The organization is therefore requesting that interested friends send checks in any amount made payable to Camp Fire Girls Memorial, 391 S. Madison Ave., Pasadena, Calif. 91106.

Dedication of the window is scheduled for Sunday, June 22, at 1 p.m. during an open house at the Council Center. The occasion will also honor Mrs. Burt's daughter, Mrs. Ervin Wright, who will retire this summer from her position as director of Altadena and Pasadena Districts, which encompass Camp Fire Girls Northwest Project.

Districts of the San Gabriel Valley Council include Altadena, Bradbury, Duarte, La Canada, Monrovia, Pasadena, Rosemead, San Gabriel, San Marino, Sierra Madre, South Pasadena, and Temple City. Chairman of the memorial window project is Allie Louise Almoe of Altadena, member of the council board of directors.

Letters To the Editor

Dear Editor:

We have one of the most extensive and expensive systems of education in the world. Yet, even after sitting in classrooms for years, according to recent statistics one-fifth of the children in the United States never attain the level of literacy necessary for available employment. If they can't be educated perhaps simple jobs should be created to fit their ability. Or the relief load will continue to soar.

Nearly one-fourth of the draftees are rejected principally because of reading deficiency. In some areas four to six of every 10 children in the 6th grade read at second grade level or below. Why? Are humans deteriorating in intelligence as well as morals? But my educator friends tell me that the statistical curve of intelligence seems to indicate an improvement in I.Q. If the children have ability to learn, what's wrong with the teaching method?

My childhood was spent in an all-white rural neighborhood, of British ancestry. Because of post-Civil War tragic conditions, many people past 30 had never attended school. But they could read the Bible, sing the hymns, and figure their cotton crops.

Mother said in those post-war days learning was a family and neighborhood affair. For a few months of the year... in the hottest summertime after crops were laid by, and in the bitter cold of winter when the crops had been gathered, classes were held in the Methodist church. The "sixth reader" was the highest taught. Mother "graduated." Because of distance, and the lack of shoes and warm clothing, many children could not get to those rural schools. When children learned to read it was their duty to teach other children to read. There was no public aid. No aid to Confederate orphans. Mother seemed to have the gift to teach. Although I was not born until 30 years after the end of the war, I'm proud she taught me to read. Now, why is it these highly educated, credentialed and certificated teacher can't teach "Tommy" to read? Should they turn from the sight method and go back to the ABCs and the vowel sounds? Do children need more individual home instruction.

Not long ago a young high school graduate said to me, "It don't make no difference." When I mentioned the double negative, she'd never heard of it. When I asked a recently graduated California boy if he had been up in the Mother Lode country, he did not know what I meant. Another graduate asked me if New Mexico was in the USA. I received a letter from a college freshman. She spelled "does" as "dose" and "there" as "theer." Wow! And the high cost of education!

Sermon: 'What's The Big Idea?'

The Rev. Richard J. Anderson of Sierra Madre Congregational Church, 170 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., will have as his sermon topic, "What's The Big Idea?"

Commenting on his sermon title he says: "There is one important idea in life which makes the difference between real living and mere existence."

"Every once in a while we read of an accidents which injures a person and leaves him virtually a vegetable. The heart still beats due to mechanical outside stimulation but the brain has been burned out. This is a very tragic situation. There is a heart beat but yet no real life."

"In another way a parallel tragedy hits many people. We find them mechanically going through the motions and routines of daily living but the big idea, the purpose, the meaning of life, has been completely missed."

Rev. Anderson concludes his comments with: "What is the big idea anyway? Have you found your purpose? Only the one who made you knows your purpose. That's the beginning of the big idea."

Sermon Topic Sunday, May 4

"Everlasting Punishment" is the subject of Sunday's Bible Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches.

A verse from Psalms in the responsive reading states: "The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed." "Divine Love corrects and governs man. Men may pardon, but this divine Principle alone reforms the sinner." This correlative passage is from the denomination's textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy.

Send Your Children To Sunday School This Sunday. You will be happy you did.

This is a Christian, interdenominational organization which seeks to meet and assist students from abroad. There are an estimated 13,000 foreign students in the colleges and universities of the Los Angeles area. These young people face many unusual problems as they seek to further their education in the U.S. Not the least of these is loneliness.

To aid in "Helping Overseas Students Feel at Home," as their motto says, Hospitality International enlists the help of interested families and individuals who offer friendship and hospitality to the students. Tours, trips and other activities are also planned for international students. Many of these programs take place in the International Student Center located several blocks west of downtown Los Angeles. The Center is a popular spot for students of nearby schools. Rev. McAnlis states that approximately 3000 foreign students live within a mile of the Center.

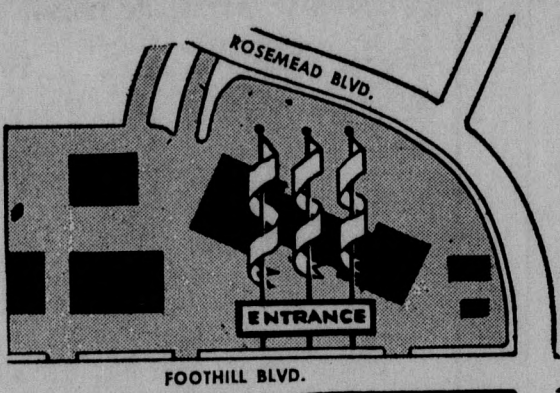

Sharing the podium with Rev. McAnlis will be two representatives of "The World At Your Doorstep": Miss Etsuko Itoh, of Japan, and Mr. Burton Farquharson from Nassau, Bahamas. They will share some of their problems and experiences as students in a foreign land.

You and Your Neighbor

Hugh and Veronica Warden, who will soon be celebrating 24 years of wedded bliss, are still practicing "togetherness." Active in the Studio Players, a local theatrical group, Hugh and Veronica will be appearing as Harry and Edna in "The Delicate Balance," a play that won author Edward Albee the Pulitzer prize when it originally debuted. The Wardens are presently getting ready for the four performances to be presented at Throop Memorial Hall, on April 25, 26, and May 2 and 3. Good luck!

Joe and Eunice Banis, along with Dan, Jim and Susan, drove to Davis the weekend of April 19-20 to attend the University's annual picnic, Joe, Jr., a pre-med student, is presently doing research work at the university and helped fill their busy two days. In fact it was a jammed packed two days. They saw many, many animals such as the largest pig (or maybe it was a sow) they had ever seen and the smallest pony-type (mini-mule,) they had ever seen. In what was designated as the Skeleton Room, a skeleton horse pulling a buggy carrying a

Kindergarten Enrollment For Public Schools

FIRE SIDE

By One of the Boys

Well the first month of the weight-losing contest was passed this past Friday night and their was to be a weighing in of the "Blubber Brothers" (Lee Graves and Don Burleson), but since this was written before the weighing in, we can't tell you how their progressing.

During the Fire Rescue class this past week one of the rescue problems discussed was how to remove a person who has gotten stuck in a bath tub. Of course the question came of as to how big a person would have to be to get stuck in the tub, and the instructor, Captain Spaulding, being a gentleman refused to use anyone in the class as an example. But, it was obvious that Lee and Don were getting a little red from blushing as a couple of their fire buddies gave 'em the eye.

Some of the city officials did pretty good at the city setting basins following the Huck Finn Derby but they ought to see the ones Ron Hall has been bringing out of San Gabriel Canyon. One day he shows up with an 18 inch rainbow trout; the following day a 20 inch and nearly every day a giant rainbow, which he says are from a little spot he found. Personally, just between you and me I think he's been stopping at Happy Jack Fish Farm and he just want to see his fellow firefighters eating their hearts out. And to tell you the truth, it's working. Joe Signorino is just about out of his gourd trying to match up to Ron's feat. He says he can almost taste those darn trout.

Eat your heart out, Joe.

Seems as though John Buchan has been a bit accident prone here lately. A couple of weeks ago he stepped on a nail and drove in way up into the instep of his foot and had to hobble around for a few days, then just about the time that was healing he got hit in the eye with a board and drove some plinters into the eyeball and had to undergo treatment for that. He's had to wear dark glasses and take things a bit easy, and for Bulldozer John that's a rough chore in itself.

Business Expected To Rise

Retail sales in Sierra Madre are expected to climb five per cent in fiscal 1970, Member Richard Nevins of the State Board of Equalization announced recently.

The increase will mean an estimated $3,000 for local government coffers from the one per cent tax on those sales.

The forecast, based on Department of Finance figures, is for a statewide gain of seven per cent in the year which ends June 30, 1970.

Sierra Madre also may expect to share $30,430 in cigarette tax revenues, the result of a 30 per cent split with the state of he 10-cent per pack tax.

Retail sales hikes estimates range from three to 12 per cent among the counties. Orange leads the larger counties with a 12 per cent gain, with Marin at 11 and a number of major counties at 10 per cent. Thirty five counties were at the statewide average of seven per cent or higher.

Nevins, who represents Southern California, cautioned that the estimates are advisory only for local budget planners and will not consider such things as boundary changes or plant relocations.

Total local sales and use tax allocations are projected to reach $413 million in 1969-70. Another $72 million of cigarette taxes are expected to be split among the 400 cities and 58 counties in 1969-70.

Speaking of close knit groups, the firefighters stick pretty well together. For instance: Neal Smith moved out of a house on Highland, Bill Newberry and his mother bought the house that Neil moved out of. Gary Smith is moving out of an apartment into a piece of property owned by a relative and Mike Tyler and his bride will probably be moving into the apartment Gary and his wife are moving out of — all within easy reach of the fire station.

More than 300 persons toured the lovely home and beautifully landscaped gardens of the Reverend Vander Zaags at 327 Santa Anita Court in Sierra Madre during an open house celebration on Sunday afternoon, April 20.

In the patio, a large table decorated in soft pastels of blue became the center of attraction where two large cut glass punch bowls filled with icy cold raspberry-delight punch beckoned. An array of hundreds of beautifully decorated cookies placed on silver trays were there too for the taking, and coffee was also served.

As the afternoon came to a close, the Vander Zaags were presented with a guest book containing the names of well-wishers. Also presented was an envelope filled with cash love-offerings from many loved-ones in their recently acquired church-family at Bethany Church of Sierra Madre where Reverend Vander Zaag became pastor only last June.

Incidentally, to anyone looking for a church-home, the members bid a hearty welcome. They would be delighted to have you visit Bethany Church and meet their new pastor. Sunday School services start at 9:30 a.m. and church services at 11 a.m.

The incoming executive board members being installed this evening are: Mrs. Gregory Palmer, president; Mrs. Charles Albin, vice president; Miss Carolyn Alvarado, recording secretary; Mrs. Sherman Toller, corresponding secretary; Miss Nancy Greenberg, treasurer; Miss Antoinette Paz, civil defense; and Miss Carolyn Born, council representative.

Mrs. Gregory Palmer and Mrs. Charles Albin will present "Do I Get the Extra Dividends Out of Life?" the cultural program for the evening.

The incoming executive board members being installed this evening are: Mrs. Gregory Palmer, president; Mrs. Charles Albin, vice president; Miss Carolyn Alvarado, recording secretary; Mrs. Sherman Toller, corresponding secretary; Miss Nancy Greenberg, treasurer; Miss Antoinette Paz, civil defense; and Miss Carolyn Born, council representative.

The rose comes very close to man's standard of perfection. Its delicate beauty seems to mock every effort of the artist or camera to capture it. But is the rose really God's masterpiece? Hardly!

For its beauty is passive. It brightens life only for those who seek it out and gaze upon it. And in but a few days it withers and is ugly.

God's masterpiece is MAN. For with all his waywardness and selfishness, Man is capable of reflecting the love of God. When he lets God touch his life he is able to bring happiness and faith to others. He doesn't have to wait until he is noticed. He can actively bring spiritual blessings to his fellow men.

As the gardener cultivates the rose, the Church cultivates the lives of men. Always it strives to help us become all that God wants us to be.

That's Where . . . . .

Since most of it has been sent to Sacramento and Washington by now, it may help to know where our tax money eventually goes, or at least why.

Announcing its 15th edition of "Facts and Figures on Government Financing," Tax Foundation, Inc., of New York reveals that government spending on the federal, state and local levels has increased by 130 per cent since 1958. Total spending amounted to $135 billion in that year. For fiscal 1969 the estimate is $310 billion.

The 1958 figure means an average expenditure of $781 for every American. The 1969 outlay comes to $1,542 per.

Part of the increase in spending can be attributed to the fact that nearly one out of every six persons employed in the United States has a government job, public employment having increased by 1.4 million from 1965 to 1967.

The monthly payroll costs for these workers . . . but cry Hold! Enough! It seems to be hurting more than it help to know where, oh where, our little dollar's gone.

A Good Week

America's public school system, which has been well called Freedom's Cornerstone, is 18 years old this year. With all its inevitable problems and crises it sets a high standard for education of all children, of whatever race, whatever economic status.

Appropriate it is, therefore, that between April 21 and 25, we observe Public School Week as a time to acquaint ourselves with the needs of our school system, address ourselves to the task of making sure that it does indeed serve all children and serve them equally well.

This will be the fifth time Ppublic School Week will have been observed since its establishment by the California Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons. An appropriate addition to the week's activities would be at least a private salute to that fraternal group which has dedicated itself to the maintenance and betterment of an institution that so affects for the good so many young lives.

They Can't Take It

San Francisco's Easter Sunday was marred by another of this youthful nihilistic outbreak, a traffic-jamming march of 20,000 hippies, yuppies, exhibitionists and what-nots to the Presidio in protest against the Vietnam war and the "mutiny" trails under way at that army post.

Its sorry climax was the spraying of corrosive acid on the faces of military police assigned to keep the rioters from breaking through the gates.

Those acid throwers probably would be the first, and loudest, to whine against police use of Mace, a painful but harmless chemical which is one of the weapons society has had to develop in order to protect itself and public property from the depredations of the lawless.

Which is just another bit of evidence that the little darlings can dish it out but can't take it.

$120-Billion!

The gasoline tax, 50 years old this year, brings in $1 million an hour, Oil Facts reports.

The first gasoline tax, called by some the "painless penny," was levied in Oregon in February, 1919, to provide money for highway construction. The late Loyal M. Graham, the legislator who sponsored the tax measure, said he never thought the idea would spread. But by 1929 every state and the District of Columbia had gasoline taxes, and the federal government joined them in 1932. The average state gasoline rate today is 6.8 cents, a gallon; the federal levy 4 cents.

Total state and federal motor fuel tax collections for 1969 will come close to $9 billion — more than the revenue derived from any other commodity. The cumulative total during the past half-century was more than $120 billion.

Today, U.S. motorists pay an average of 10.8 cents tax on each gallon of motor fuel — the equivalent of a sales tax of nearly 50 per cent on purchases of regular-grade gasoline. The average state gasoline tax rate is 6.8 cents a gallon, and the federal tax is 4 cents.

Through the years most states have used gasoline tax revenue for highway construction and maintenance, and 28 states have adopted constitutional amendments to protect highway user taxes for road purposes. Gasoline taxes have provided the major share of the money for a nationwide highway system that is the envy of the world.

In a few states, however, large sums of highway user tax revenue are still being channeled into non-road projects. In the decade 1958-1967, the amounts thus diverted from roads included $1.7 billion in motor fuel taxes and $3.4 billion in other state highway user taxes.

States have used highway tax revenue to run prison farms, pay the expenses of parole boards, build civic memorials, finance mosquito control and even to propagate oysters.

As might be expected, the states which are the worst diverters of road funds are those with the most severe highway problems.

There Is No Escape

Where there is smoke, there is fire — so goes the old expression. It appears particularly applicable to present discussions of federal tax reform. One of the last official acts of the Johnson Administration was to submit proposed changes in the tax laws to make the system more equitable and to extend its reach to incomes that it has been claimed escape their share of the tax load. The Nixon Administration is also concerned with tax reform.

For longer than most of us can remember, there have been proposals of one kind or another to improve and reform the tax laws, but instead of reform, taxes have gotten higher and the rules more complicated year after year.

Perhaps at last the pressure of taxpayer resentment will force change, but no miracles should be expected — and least of all a substantial lessening of the tax burden. As long as the cost of government continues to rise disproportionately to the productive capacity of the people, taxes will become increasingly burdensome. Reform of the tax laws may mean more equitable treatment of taxpayers. But, reform should not be confused with reduction. Because of their number, the great body of U.S. citizens of modest means, in the future as in the past, will remain the main target of the tax collector. There is no other way.

SENSING THE NEWS

AROUND THE U. S. CAPITOL

When Senate "liberals," led by Senator J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) began their battle against an anti-ballistic missile system, the operation seemed to be just another emotional protest by the defense-abolitionist element in the Senate. The fight against the ABM has taken on a new character in recent weeks, however. It apparently represents a bold bid by Senator Edward Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Kennedy faithful to defeat and humiliate President Nixon in the early months of his presidency, thereby turning him into a virtual lame-duck president from the start.

Members of the Kennedy family and former Kennedy administration officials are in the key positions of the anti-ABM movement. Dr. Jerome Wiesner, chief scientific adviser to the Kennedy administration and a fervent advocate of quick disarmament, is masterminding efforts among "liberals" in the scientific community to discredit defense against Soviet ballistic missiles.

In New York State, Stephen Smith, a Kennedy brother-in-law, and Roswell Gilpatrick, a former high official under the New Frontier, are leaders in a so-called "ad hoc Committee Against ABM." Abraham Chayes, a Harvard professor and former State Department official in the Kennedy administration, also is deeply involved. The depth and scope of the anti-ABM effort is indicated by the fact that it even includes massive telephone-calling operations such as are used in presidential elections. Committees are being formed to write letters to appear in newspapers across the country.

This power drive by New Frontiersmen, who would like to mark Richard M. Nixon as a one-term President, cannot be regarded, however, as an ordinary exercise of politics. The defense of the United States should not be involved in the political game.

In the past, both major parties have closed ranks on national defense. Even when a President lacked a majority in Congress, the majority accepted his leadership on vital defense decisions, holding that the U.S. can have only one Commander-in-Chief at a time.

Thus the Republicans went along with President Truman's basic decision on Korea. And during the Eisenhower administration, when the Democrats controlled the Senate, the Democratic leadership likewise accepted President Eisenhower's leadership and judgment on defense. Again, during the Kennedy administration, the opposition fully accepted President Kennedy's leadership in the Cuban missile crisis.

The foes of ballistic missile defense are throwing overboard all the precedents insofar as defense leadership is concerned. President Nixon has said that the Safeguard ABM system is essential to the security of the American people and to the protection of the nation's nuclear deterrent force. Mr. Nixon has the constitutional responsibility for the defense of the United States, but the anti-ABM lobby clearly intends to usurp his constitutional authority.

In trying to justify their ruthless opposition, "liberals" in the Senate say that the ABM would endanger peace. But Senator Richard Russell (D-Ga.) rightly has characterized this argument as absurd. In a recent talk in Atlanta, Senator Russell pointed out that the ABM is a defensive system. He asked how the Russians could possibly be angered by an American defense system. The absurdity is all the greater inasmuch as the Soviets already have an ABM system deployed around Moscow and Leningrad.

As for the need of the ABM, the President is in a better position than anyone to know the full extent of the Soviet missile menace today. As for the system's feasibility, the scientists who have the greatest expertise in ABM systems are those employed in developing them.

But leaving such questions aside, the attempt to reject President Nixon's first major proposal for national defense threatens the credibility of American leadership between now and 1972. If Mr. Nixon is defeated on the ABM, what foreign country will regard him as the real leader of his country? What ally will believe that Mr. Nixon can assure American aid, in view

With Our TEENS

by Debbi Anderson
and Tim Anderson

Saturday, May 19 was "Ruck Finn Day" in Sierra Madre. There was a large turnout of kids to participate and also to help. Nancy and Marilyn Williams, Betsy and Jill Simons, Nancy Rudolph, Ram Rinkley, and Dave Kimball were the helpers responding in the Teen Council. Also two teenage Boy Scouts from Troop 376 helped. They were Charles Hahn and Randy Page. This week I received a letter from Mrs. Eileen Pirkowitsch. She asked if the Teen Council could possibly give a party for a group of physically and educationally handicapped teenagers from PHS and McKinley schools. The idea will be brought up at the next Teen Council meeting. I can't speak for all the members but I'm sure most of them would really enjoy doing something like this. I'll let you know after our next meeting.

Our next meeting will be May 6 at the Sierra Madre City Hall. All interested Sierra Madre teens are invited. We would like the chance of showing you what we do at the meetings.

Tim Anderson just reported on the Teen Council pot luck dinner. It was held Thursday night at Margie Grippi's house. It was a great success. Each teen brought food and they ate out in the Grippi's patio.

Those attending were Geri Danner, Craig Anderson, Robin Jordan, Steve Hardy, Sheri Carlton, Meri Phillips, Mark Brown, Theresa Cordell, Michelle Keilty, Carolyn Denslow, Bruce Abraham, Joyce Wilwerding, Carol Hathaway, Julie Walters, Betsy and Jill Simons, Ron and Ken Biely, Carson Jefferson, Nancy Williams, and of course, Margie Grippi. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grippi for providing the facility and to chaperons Don Stuart, Mrs. Madeline Anderson and Mrs. Wesley Anderson.

We would like to hear from teenagers what activities you want to see programmed for this summer. Please send your suggestions to Debbi, care of the Sierra Madre News. Thank you.

welfare: $10 was given to the Red Cross to buy materials to fill "tidy bags" for Christmas distribution to servicemen in Vietnam and a subscription to the "News" will be sent to a local boy in Vietnam. The social hour was spent playing cards. Mrs. Amy Beisel won the door prize.

Past presidents of the Unit will join with other past presidents of the 18th District in honoring the service women of the San Gabriel Valley on Wednesday, April 30, at Arcadia Legion Hall. A dinner will be served at 6:30 and a program will follow. This is an annual event. Local ex-service women who will attend include Leila Roberts and Marie Oster.

The next meeting will be May 8 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wayne Perry, 40 S. Hermosa.

Davidson, Reitman Nuptials Take Place At Cal-Tech Saturday, April 19

MRS. GARY REITMAN
... nee Laureen Davidson

Wearing a lovely lace cocktail dress with long sleeves, Miss Laureen Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Davidson became the bride of Mr. Gary Reitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reitman of Redondo Beach in an informal ceremony held at the Athenaeum at Cal-Tech on Saturday, April 19. A champagne reception and buffet dinner for some eighty attending guests immediately followed the rites. The Davidsons have resided in Sierra Madre since 1946 and Lauren was born and raised here. She attended Sierra Madre Community Nursery School, Sierra Mesa, Poly Technic, the University of California at Santa Cruz and the University of California at Berkeley. She is presently a ski instructor at Mammoth Mountain where Mr. Reitman is also employed. Both plan to return to school in the fall.

lot was leaking gasoline to the point of danger to other cars in the area. Engine 423 was dispatched to the location, and although the car had been removed, the Engine washed away the excess gasoline. First Assistant Jim Tyler declared that no damage was done.
Both engines and men were ordered to return to the station at 11:45 a.m. to secure for the next call.

The third alarm of the series sounded at 10:49 p.m.
to the home of John Englert at 131 Holdman Avenue.
Engine 424 made the run in 2 minutes 15 seconds to find that a washing machine motor had become overheated and filled the home with smoke, but no fire was present upon arrival of the department.

Nineteen regular Firefighters and 3 reserves answered the alarm, truck 421
also responded and Engine 423 was on standby at Holdman and San Gabriel Court.

Damage to the motor was estimated by Chief Charles Brown at $50. Men and equipment were released at 11:10 to return to the station and prepare for the next call.

The fourth call in the series came at 6:04 Sunday

Boy Scouts Now On Fund Drive

Cash and pledges totaling over a quarter of a million dollars have come in during the first three weeks of the San Gabriel Valley Boy Scout Council's $1.8 million camp fund drive.

Campaigning officially began April 1. The council's ultimate goal is to provide enough campaigning facilities to accommodate the area's 24,000 scouts. Existing campsites serve only 33 per cent of the scouting population now.

Five 3-Hour Lawn Sessions

If you want your lawn to look well this summer and next fall you can get a big start by attending one or all five three-hour lawn-clinic sessions to be conducted at the Los Angeles
State and County Arboretum in Arcadia starting Wednesday morning, April 30, at 9 a.m.

Dr. H. Hamilton Williams,
staff turfgrass specialist and a leader in the nationwide "Operation Green Carpet" program, will direct the clinic.

According to Dr. Williams this is the critical time of year for lawns and therefore the emphasis in the clinic will be on individual lawn problems.

Homeowners will receive advice and guidance on such matters as how much and when to water, fertiliz-ing, reel versus rotary-type mowing, weed control, planning and planting. They are particularly invited to bring specimens from any area of their lawn that appears to be ailing.

The remainder of the clinic sessions, which are free of charge, will be held May 14 and 28, June 11 and 25, each from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Edward Dietrich, wearing the colors of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, won the second annual Mt. Wilson climb for the Police Gazette medal yesterday, his time for the ascent being 1 hour, 29 minutes, 30 seconds.

Prizes for the best looking yards will be offered by the Board of Trade, pursuant to action taken at the monthly meeting held on Monday evening. The action was taken with a view to stimulating interest in gardening and the beautifying of property about town.

Two new advertisers appear in this issue of the News, the firm of Betts & Welsher who have purchased the grocery business of A. B. Stickney, and P. W. Andrew, a watch maker and jeweler who has taken quarters at Elkland's tailor shop.

Attention has been called by a News reader to an object lesson in the improvement of property, in the grounds of the Knapp and Climie homes on Grand View avenue, east of Mountain Trail. Shrubbery, vines and roses show a profusion of growth and bloom. None of these plants are quick-growing, temporary character but are carefully selected, sub-tropical foliage, and the best of the outdoor roses. With results like these from two seasons of growth there is no reason why Sierra Madre should not be the most beautiful as well as the best located town in Southern California.

Mrs. J. E. Rhea of Memphis, Tenn., arrived Friday evening of last week for an extended visit at the home of her son, W. E. Rhea.

Things are moving in Monte Lado tract. J. H. Nightingale has begun work on his new house on the south side of Alegria near Mountain Trail. Mr. Kock has been improving his lot next to the Lodge residence and will build soon.

Agent Borden at Santa Anita station reports that the Santa Fe's new wind-splitting motor car has passed through on a trial trip and will soon be making a regular run over the division between Redlands and Los Angeles. The car is of steel, 50 feet long. It is pointed and so shaped as to offer least resistance to the air. It is propelled by a 250-horsepower gasoline engine. On its first trip over this line the car maintained an average speed of 65 miles an hour.

25 Men From St. Rita's Attend Retreat

A group of 25 members of St. Rita's Parish, Sierra Madre, under the leadership of Captain Art Garceau, were among the 77 men of the Los Angeles Archdiocese making the closed retreat at Mater Dolorosa Retreat House of the Passionist Fathers last April 18, 19 and 20.

The retreat known as "50 Golden Hours" opened last Friday night, and closed Sunday afternoon.

The Retreat House is located high in the hills above Sierra Madre, and the Retreat marked the 1821 retreat conducted since they were first started. During this time 99,584 men, Catholic and non-Catholic, have made these retreats.

Rev. Joseph Pettit, C.P., was Retreat Master, and the men were welcomed by Rev. Damian McHale, C.P., Retreat Director and his assistant, Rev. Jordan Grimes, C.P., who conducted many of the services during the time of the retreat.

Captain Art Garceau reported a highly successful retreat.

Supreme Court Ruling Costly To Californians

U.S. Supreme Court ruling that wiped out residency requirements for welfare recipients was described by Supervisor Warren Dorn as a "disastrous financial blow" to county property owners.

Dorn called for the federal and state governments to "immediately take over the total financing of welfare programs in the best interest of county taxpayers."

"If his cannot be accomplished, then the federal government should pick up the additional costs which will result from the court action — an action which opens the gates to thousands of out-of-state residents who undoubtedly will trek to California to take advantage of substantial welfare checks."

Dorn, president of the County Supervisors Association of California, pointed out that since a district federal court action of April 19 of last year, which initially lifted residency requirements, the county has had 10,000 new cases.

"In general relief cases alone, the county cost is $20 million per year," he added.

Another possible solution to the mounting problem would be to have federal-state funding of welfare programs if the counties have a free hand to control such programs.

of his defeat on a basic element in defense of the continental United States? A defeat of Mr. Nixon on the ABM would not only make him appear a lame duck, but would leave the Russians with the conviction that the United States was in the grip of defense-abolitionists. The USSR would be encouraged to commit aggression against the United States.

In the spirit of national defense is struck a blow by the U.S. Senate, the American people may be exposed to more serious peril than at any time in their history. The Soviet marshals may counsel the Kremlin leaders that the time has come to attack the United States.

Dorn Urges Support For Taxpayer Relief

Legislative matters in Sacramento which would "directly benefit the taxpayers deserve the full support of Los Angeles County residents," Supervisor Warren Dorn declared recently.

Dorn said he was "particularly concerned about two anti-obscenity bills which are absolutely necessary to battle the notorious flow of filthy literature."

The supervisor said Senate Bills 62 and 63 (Lagobarsino, Ventura) "deserve maximum support of the people." The supervisors, on Dorn's motion, recently affirmed support of the measures.

Dorn pointed out that lack of strong anti-pornography laws "leaves wide open the door to filth peddling."

"Unfortunately, too often the victims of this multimillion dollar business are the children of the community," he added. SB 62 would make it unlawful to distribute or exhibit harmful material to those under 18.

The two measures are now before the Assembly Criminal Procedures Committee, which may hear them this week. Dorn asked citizens to write the committee, urging passage.

Another important bill is Assembly Bill 76, which would temporarily increase the gasoline tax by 1-cent in order to provide funds for rebuilding of county and city roads, bridges and other facilities.

"The property owners of this county should not be forced to pick up the bill for storm damage," said Dorn. He pointed out the measure would mean about $21 million to the county.

Phil Watson Seeks Filing Extension

County Assessor Phil Watson on Tuesday urged Governor Reagan to seek emergency amending legislation to extend for 30 days, to May 15, the filing date for property tax relief refund and exemption forms.

Watson pointed out that only about one million forms have been returned to his office of the more than 1,600,000 mailed to eligible homeowners throughout Los Angeles County.

In a letter to the Governor, Watson said in part: "I plead with you to use your office to influence the Legislature to enact emergency amending legislation which would extend for 30 days, to May 15, 1969, the filing deadline for the $70 refund and the $750 exemption forms."

"The confusion caused by the wording on the forms alone, which was prescribed by the State Board of Equalization, is unbelievable, and the misinformation circulated by various agencies and so-called responsible individuals is worse."

"Even many of our County officials have come to my office seeking assistance in filling out their applications."

"I believe that the Legislature which passed the measure that put Proposition 1-A on the ballot last November should give the taxpayers a break."

"If not, then the entire 'property tax relief' concept is meaningless to hundreds of thousands of our residents."

Sierra Madiran On Honor Roll

The Winter Quarter 1969 honor roll at the University of Montana lists 1,018 students, almost one-seventh of the student body, according to Leo Smith, UM registrar.

Of the total, 155 or 14 per cent of the honor students, earned straight A's.

To be included on the honor roll a student must earn a minimum of 54 grade points, figured by multiplying the number of credits earned for each course taken by a number representing the grade received, with A's counting four points, B's three, etc.

Edward Buchler of Sierra Madre was among those listed on the honor roll.

CARROT TOP

TON, Remember this 5 days before.

On third class mail the United States Post Office requires a possibility of waiting 72 hours before they make delivery of this class of mail. Everyone concerned knows this fact.

The Ballots were mailed on April 9, in Los Angeles, so we assume they could have reached the various post offices on the 10th of April. 72 hours hence would be April 12th, which is a Saturday afternoon and no mail delivery then or on Sunday.

Post Office Box holders received their ballots on Sunday morning or late Saturday night if they so wished, but other Sierra Madiran did not receive theirs until Monday afternoon or late morning depending upon the route man. Checking with Pasadena, we find that most of the residents there received theirs late Monday afternoon, and some of the more Tuesday. On April 18, 9 days after the mailing South El Monte had not received theirs yet, and the Postmaster stated that they had not arrived in his office as yet.

A little green sheet inside your sample ballot, dealt with Absentee Ballots, and plainly said that you must make application provided it was necessary for you to vote that type of ballot on April 22. This could be done by either presenting yourself to the Spring Street address in Los Angeles or by Mail.

IT ALSO SAID, THE APPLICATION MUST REACH THE OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR OF VOTERS NOT LESS THAN SEVEN DAYS BEFORE THE DAY OF ELECTION. The closing time for this type of ballot was Monday, April 14th at the hour of 5 p.m. Three hours after some received their ballot, and past the time for the working person who came home Monday evening and received his ballot and wanted to secure an absentee ballot, either for himself or an invalid person in the household.

Now I say again, the law says that the Registrar of Voters can deliver five days before the election, but absentee ballots cannot be given out seven days before the election, what an ambiguous law.

Why does the Postmaster have the right to hold the ballots 3 days before delivery. Here we give ONE MAN the right to turn an entire election. Washington, D.C. is hearing about this. Of course First Class Mail could be used — but this would cost well over a million dollars to send them out, and the taxpayer should not be subject to this kind of protection, they should receive it without paying through the nose.

Anyway, regardless of how the election goes, what candidates win the election, it definitely is a "Lopsided Affair," and these kind of low shenanigans must be changed, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Letters To the Editor . . . .

Dear Editor:

One of the most serious problems facing the American parent today is the so-called "generation gap." Its manifestations are myriad — way-out music, hippies, drug abuse, riots, and the student take-over of our campuses.

We are led to believe that this is something new, this "generation gap." Let us look at Russia in the early thirties, when the Soviet Commissar for Public Instruction issued the following order:

"The first thing I wish to impress upon you . . . is to re-establish discipline in our schools . . . The Soviet school is characterized by weak discipline and even in places by the complete absence of discipline . . . I know of cases where the organization and maintenance of discipline is shoved over to the student government . . . The teacher is assigned a passive role or even none at all."

In 1933, Americans read in their newspapers that Russian students were witnessing "the restoration of the teacher to the time-honored position as disciplinarians . . . a new emphasis in the rudiments of human knowledge, including the traditional three R's." Under the new system, such subjects as history and geography, which had been lost in many of the 'conferences' and 'projects' are definitely differentiated."

When are Americans going to realize, as the Communists did, that education is based on discipline. When are the Americans going to see that in reality the "generation gap" is the "Spock gap," and that what we are witnessing on our campuses is nothing more nor nothing less than a lack of discipline.

Of course, this should in no way be construed as an endorsement of the Soviet system or Soviet education. However, it should be understood that what happened in Russia was as a result of a Communist mistake. What is happening in America is the result of a Communist plan, laid down coincidentally in the early thirties.

—Richard E. Woodin
